

Michigan Speech Language Hearing Association, Annual Conference, 2021

Providing Family-Centered Care in an ICAP: An Interdisciplinary Team Approach for Supporting Individuals with Aphasia and their Care Partners

Kaitlyn Moses, M.A., CCC-SLP

University Center for Language and Literacy
Mary A. Rackham Institute
University of Michigan

Keli Licata, M.A., CCC-SLP

University Center for Language and Literacy
Mary A. Rackham Institute
University of Michigan

Jonathen Ross, L.M.S.W.

University Psychological Clinic
Mary A. Rackham Institute
University of Michigan

- Introductions, Disclosures, Learning Outcomes
- Description of University of Michigan Aphasia Program (UMAP)
 - Setting, Services, Clients
 - UMAP as an Intensive Comprehensive Aphasia Program (ICAP)
<https://mari.umich.edu/ucl/umap>
- Life Participation Approach to Aphasia (LPAA) treatment at UMAP
- Importance of family-centered care and support for care partners of individuals with aphasia
 - “Third party disability”
- UMAP Care Partner Program
 - Facilitators and breakdowns in care partner support throughout rehabilitation process
 - Kinds of support for care partners
 - Education/Information/Resources
<https://mari.umich.edu/ucl/umap/aphasia-resources-slps>
 - Communication training & discussion
 - Counseling/Psychosocial & emotional support
 - Other care partners (cohort model, peer support)
 - Interdisciplinary, collaborative team
 - University Psychological Clinic:
https://umich.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_e8Pu8AtzlahYyDX
- Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT)
 - Origin, Goal/Purpose, Protocol
 - Use of DBT to support mental health for individuals with aphasia and their care partners
- Considerations for interdisciplinary collaboration across settings
- Barriers and benefits related to care partner support and family-centered care
- Closing Discussion, Questions, Resources

University of Michigan Aphasia Program (UMAP)
(734) 764-8440
www.aphasiahelp.com